

Title: AMENDED Resolution for Divestment from Private Prisons, Fossil Fuel Corporations, Border Walls, and Arms Manufacturers
Sponsored by: Chair Morrison, Chair Gosey, Representative Mack

- 1     WHEREAS, systems of oppression that target Black, Brown, and Indigenous lives are enabled through 2     corporations engaged in human rights abuses,
3
- 4     WHEREAS, 36.29(1), Wis. Stats., states that “all investments ‘...made in any company, corporation, 5     subsidiary, or affiliate that practices or condones through its actions discrimination on the basis of race,
6     religion, color, creed or sex. . . .’ shall be divested in as prudent but rapid a manner as possible,” 7
- 8     WHEREAS, there is a concerning lack of accessible information on the UW Foundation’s $3.1 billion 9     investment portfolio,
10
- 11    WHEREAS, University of Wisconsin-Madison students lack access to information on what corporations 12    the University is invested in, and should have input regarding what corporations their University supports,
13
- 14    WHEREAS, the Code of Conduct of the University of Wisconsin states that “[r]espect for human dignity 15    is essential to the university environment. The UW Colleges affirms its commitment to promoting the 16    ideal that faculty, staff, students, and guests are free to engage in academic expression and debate, and to 17    pursue their social and private lives in our communities, unthreatened by discrimination or harassment.
18    All who come to the UW Colleges to work and to study will be accepted and judged as individuals; 19    discrimination, disruption, or harassment on the basis of race, sex, religion, color, creed, disability, sexual 20    orientation, gender, national origin, ancestry, or age will not be tolerated,”<sup>1</sup> 21
- 22    WHEREAS, the UW Foundation provides, “opportunities to enhance its learning, research and outreach 23    programs and guarantees ethical stewardship of gifts received,”<sup>2</sup>
24
- 25    WHEREAS, there are numerous companies actively engaged in human rights violations across the world,
26
- 27    WHEREAS, this resolution aims neither to condemn a country, a people, nor a community nor to 28    determine a political solution, but is solely aimed at ending our University’s support of corporations that 29    profit from human rights violations,
30
- 31    WHEREAS, US trade and foreign policy, with an emphasis on NAFTA, has intentionally destabilized the 32    political and economic climates of Latin American nations, causing the desire for migration to the United 33    States.<sup>3</sup>

1 WHEREAS, the hateful and racist rhetoric used by Donald Trump to garner support for the proposed US-
2 Mexico border wall correlates with a significant rise in reported hate crimes against several marginalized
3 groups, including but not limited to the Latinx, Black, Muslim, Indigenous, and Jewish communities,

4
5 WHEREAS, the proposed US-Mexico border wall will decrease the migration of the more than seventy 6 percent of agricultural workers who are undocumented<sup>4</sup>, and will cause untold devastation to US food
7 production and supply<sup>5</sup>,

8
9 WHEREAS, Granite Construction, Tetra Tech, Sundt<sup>6</sup>, and Elbit Systems<sup>7</sup> have built previous 10 segments of the border wall between the US and Mexico through Indigenous lands,

11
12 WHEREAS, the policies of mass incarceration have disproportionately affected Black, Brown, and 13 Indigenous bodies,

15 WHEREAS, CoreCivic and GEO Group, account for 85% of the private prison beds in the United 16 States and their largest consumer is the Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) Agency<sup>8</sup>,

18 WHEREAS, G4S provides transportation for US Customs and Border Protection along the US-Mexican 19 Border and is actively involved in the detention of immigrants in the United States and Europe<sup>9</sup>,

21 WHEREAS, Fossil Fuel corporations routinely engage in resource extraction from indigenous lands
22 without the consent of impacted Indigenous Nations and which affects or destroys their ways of life, 23 spiritual being, or physical self,

24
25 WHEREAS, this includes the construction of the Dakota Access Pipeline by Energy Transfer
26 Partners which is destroying sacred burial sites of the Sioux Nation and putting at risk the sacred, life-
27 giving waters of the Missouri River,

28
29 WHEREAS, this includes Canadian Aquila Resources which is planning to build an open-pit mine in 30 northern Wisconsin against the voices of the Menominee Nation<sup>10</sup>,

1
2 Banks that Finance Corporate Human Rights Abuse

4 WHEREAS, the Standing Rock Sioux have called for divestment from banks funding the Dakota Access
5 Pipeline, including but not limited to Citibank, SunTrust, TD Securities, Deutsche Bank, and Wells
6 Fargo.

8 WHEREAS, US-Bank and Wells Fargo have engaged in discriminatory lending practices that contribute 9 to evictions, housing insecurity, and wealth inequality in low-income and minority communities, and 10 JPMorgan-Chase has engaged in discriminatory promotion practices,

11
12 WHEREAS, these private prison corporations “depend on the debt financing in the form of credit, loans, 13 and bonds to conduct their day-to-day business and acquire smaller companies.” These smaller companies
14 include those that provide residential re-entry and electronic monitoring services, that will enable GEO
15 Group and CoreCivic to continue to benefit from the latest profit-maximizing moves in mass 16 incarceration: house arrest,

18 WHEREAS, Bank of America, JP Morgan Chase, BNP Paribas, Suntrust, US Bank Corp, Wells
19 Fargo and Deutsche Bank all have been shown to play a major role in the financing of these private 20 prison companies and thus are responsible for the enabling mass incarceration and the criminalization of 21 immigration,

23 WHEREAS, Lockheed Martin, Raytheon, General Dynamics, and Northrop Grumman, Honeywell, 24 Textron, Huntington Ingalls, L-3 Communications, United Technologies Corporations, General
25 Dynamics, and Boeing, which represent some of the largest arms manufacturers in the United 26 States, profit from the destruction of Black, Brown, and Indigenous Lives. This includes, but is not 27 limited to, those lives in Palestine who continue to suffer under Israeli military occupation supported by a 28 United States $38 billion dollar military aid package which is used to purchase equipment from these 29 arms manufacturers. It includes lives in Egypt, Syria, Yemen, and Latin America who suffer from 30 violence enabled by these arms manufacturers,

31
32 WHEREAS, the US Department of Defense’s 1033 Program, which allows the transfer of military 33 equipment to civilian law enforcement agencies, has caused “American policing to become unnecessarily
34 and dangerously militarized.” Moreover, these military arsenals are used to perpetuate a War on Drugs
35 that destroys Black and Brown communities through mass incarceration and extrajudicial police killings,

37 WHEREAS, Israeli police and military train US police departments and Immigration and Customs 38 Enforcement agents in military police control tactics in response to civilian protests. These tactics have 39 actively contributed to the militarization of police forces and the subsequent extrajudicial killings of 40 Black and Brown bodies at the hands of these police forces,
