So I will represent to you that Tuesday,  November 8, 2016, was Election Day. Would you agree with me? 11:19:25  A. Yes, sir. Q. Okay. And cutting to the chase here, would you agree with me that the shoplifting incident about which you have written took place on Wednesday, November 9, 2016? 11:19:40  A. I'd have to look at the police report                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | 2345678910111213141516                                                 | next day, which would be Thursday, November 10th, 2016?  A. Again, I'd have to look at the dates, but that seems plausible.  Q. Okay. Do you know if there were 11:21:34 demonstrations that occurred in front of Gibson's Bakery and around Gibson's Bakery on Friday, November, 11, 2016?  A. Assuming that they started on Thursday, yes, they did continue for more than one day. 11:21:51  Q. Okay. So I want to turn your attention now to the events that took place on Friday, November 11, 2016, okay?  A. Yes, sir.  Q. And all of my questions that I'm going 11:22:08 to ask you now relate to what occurred on Friday,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |

Assuming that they started on Thursday, yes, they did continue for more than one day. 11:21:51  Q. Okay. So I want to turn your attention now to the events that took place on Friday, November 11, 2016, okay?  A. Yes, sir.  Q. And all of my questions that I'm going 11:22:08 to ask you now relate to what occurred on Friday, November 11, 2016. Can we agree to that?  A. Sir. Sure. Sorry, my throat is dry.  Q. By the way, the other agreement that we didn't talk about is if you need to take a break at any time, we can do that, or if you need to                                                                                                                                             |

So I will represent to you that Tuesday, November 8, 2016, was Election Day. Would you agree with me? 11:19:25 A. Yes, sir. Q. Okay. And cutting to the chase here, would you agree with me that the shoplifting incident about which you have written took place on Wednesday, November 9, 2016? 11:19:40 A. I'd have to look at the police report again to be sure, but it sounds plausible. Q. Okay. You are aware that there were demonstrations that occurred in Oberlin and around the Oberlin campus on Thursday, November 11:19:59 10th, correct? A. Again, I'd have to refresh my memory about exactly what the date was.          | 234567891011121314151617181920212223       | next day, which would be Thursday, November 10th, 2016? | 9  | A. I don't know.                                      | 9  | arrived —                                                |
| 10 | Q. 250? 13:25:33                                      | 10 | Q. Okay. 13:27:02                                        |
| 11 | A. I'd say that that's extremely fair.                | 11 | <ul> <li>A. — which was your question.</li> </ul>        |
| 12 | Q. Okay. So your best estimate is that                | 12 | Q. Fine. Okay. So when you arrived, it's                 |
| 13 | there were approximately 250 people present at        | 13 | your testimony that you saw approximately 250            |
| 14 | the demonstration on November 10, correct?            | 14 | individuals at the demonstration, correct?               |
| 15 | A. No – 13:25:49                                      | 15 | A. That's seems fair. 13:27:12                           |
| 16 | MR. KESLAR: Objection to                              | 16 | Q. Okay. So when you arrived, what else                  |
| 17 | mischaracterization.                                  | 17 | did you see going on?                                    |
| 18 | I'm sorry. Go ahead.                                  | 18 | A. Could you be more specific?                           |
| 20 | Q. Okay. So is it your testimony that it's 13:25:53   | 20 | conference room.) 13:27:27                               |
| 21 | fair to say that there were approximately 250         | 21 | Q. Sure. So you and Mr. Hutson arrived at                |
| 22 | people who were at some or all of the                 | 22 | the demonstration, right?                                |
| 23 | demonstration on November 10th?                       | 23 | A. Correct.                                              |
| 24 | A. At some of the demonstration?                      | 24 | Q. Where did you walk to?                                |
| 25 | Q. Yes. 13:26:02                                      | 25 | A. I believe we ended up standing, at least 13:27:34     |

So on how many occasions on November 10 did you speak to Meredith Raimondo?  A. Once.  Q. Okay. And that one occasion is the 14:10:31 10 discussion that you've just described in part, correct?  A. That is part of it, yes. Q. Okay. Is there another part of it? A. The conversation exceeded that, yes. 14:10:46 15 Q. Okay. Got it. And you are unwilling to testify about any more of that conversation?  MR. KESLAR: I'm going to instruct you not to answer based on the privilege that I've asserted for you today and the instructions I've 14:11:03 given you not to answer. Q. Did you have any other contact of any kind with Meredith Raimondo after your conversation with her? A. I don't recall any, no. 14:11:29 |

Anything that was not previously disclosed, I'm going to instruct you not to answer, but to the extent that you did disclose something in a news article, you can respond.  15:20:30  A. Yes, they were using profanity. Q. Okay. You personally observed some of the protestors using profanity?              | 23456789101112131415161718192021222324 | A. Is that — is that not the same question that was just asked?  MR. KESLAR: This question is restricted just to the profanity, and so I would instruct 15:22:04 you not to go beyond the profanity.  A. They were yelling things such as F you, F off, et cetera. Q. So F you and F off, correct? A. Yes. 15:22:21 Q. Okay. Do you recall any other things of a profane nature that were being directed to you? A. I was called a honky, which was interesting. Q. Okay. What other comments were directed 15:22:37 at you that you took offense to?  MR. KESLAR: I'm going to instruct you to limit your answer to profanity. Anything beyond that is privileged. A. Middle fingers, that sort of thing. 15:22:59 Q. Okay. So other than F — A. And for the record, I didn't particularly take offense to much of it, but — Q. Okay.       |
