a/k/a “Will Hana,” and Defendants.

SUPERSEDING INDICTMENT

S4 23 Cr. 490 (SHS)

Overview

1. ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, is the senior U.S. Senator from the State of New Jersey. From at least in or about 2018 up to and including in or about 2023, MENENDEZ and his wife, NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendant, engaged in a corrupt relationship with three New Jersey associates and businessmen—Wael HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” and FRED DAIBES, the defendants, and Jose Uribe—in which MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ agreed to and did accept hundreds of thousands of dollars of bribes in exchange for using MENENDEZ’s power and influence as a Senator to seek to protect and enrich HANA, DAIBES, and Uribe, and to benefit the Arab Republic of Egypt and the State of Qatar. Those bribes included cash, gold, payments toward a home mortgage, compensation for a low-or-no-show job, a luxury vehicle, and other things of value.

2. This corrupt relationship resulted in ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, promising to take and taking a series of official acts and breaches of official duty in exchange for bribes that benefitted him both directly, and indirectly through NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendant. Among other things, first, MENENDEZ promised to and did use his influence and power and breach his official duty in ways that benefited the Government of Egypt and WAEL HANA, a/k/a "Will Hana," the defendant, an Egyptian-American businessman, among others. Among other actions, MENENDEZ provided sensitive U.S. Government information and took other steps that secretly aided the Government of Egypt. MENENDEZ also improperly advised and pressured an official at the United States Department of Agriculture for the purpose of protecting a business monopoly granted to HANA by Egypt and used in part to fund the bribes being paid to MENENDEZ through NADINE MENENDEZ. Second, MENENDEZ promised to and did use his influence and power and breach his official duty to seek to disrupt a criminal investigation and prosecution undertaken by the New Jersey Attorney General's Office related to Jose Uribe and his associates. Third, MENENDEZ promised to and did use his influence and power and breach his official duty to recommend that the President nominate an individual as U.S. Attorney for the District of New Jersey who MENENDEZ believed could be influenced by MENENDEZ with respect to the federal criminal prosecution of FRED DAIBES, the defendant, and to seek to disrupt that same prosecution. Fourth, MENENDEZ agreed to and did accept payment from DAIBES, knowing that DAIBES expected MENENDEZ in exchange to use his influence and power and breach his official duty to assist DAIBES, who was seeking millions of dollars in investment from a fund with ties to the Government of Qatar, by performing acts to benefit the Government of Qatar.

3. ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, further promised to take and took a series of acts on behalf of Egypt, including on behalf of Egyptian military and intelligence officials, and conspired to do so with WAEL HANA, a/k/a "Will Hana," and NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a "Nadine Arslanian," the defendants, who also communicated requests and directives from Egyptian officials to MENENDEZ.

4. In or about June 2022, federal agents executed court-authorized search warrants on the New Jersey home of ROBERT MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendants, and the safe deposit box of NADINE MENENDEZ. In conducting these court-authorized searches, agents found certain of the fruits of MENENDEZ’s and NADINE MENENDEZ’s corrupt bribery agreement with WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” and FRED DAIBES, the defendants, and Jose Uribe, including cash, gold, the luxury vehicle, and home furnishings. Over $480,000 in cash—much of it stuffed into envelopes and hidden in clothing, closets, and a safe—was discovered in the home, along with over $70,000 in NADINE MENENDEZ’s safe deposit box. Some of the envelopes contained the fingerprints and/or DNA of DAIBES or his driver. Other of the envelopes were found inside jackets bearing MENENDEZ’s name and hanging in his closet, as depicted below.

During the same court-authorized search of the home, agents also found home furnishings provided by HANA and DAIBES, the luxury vehicle paid for by Uribe parked in the garage, as well as over one hundred thousand dollars’ worth of gold bars in the home, which were provided by either HANA or DAIBES. Two of the gold bars DAIBES provided are depicted in the photographs below.

Relevant Individuals

Senator Robert Menendez and his Wife, Nadine Menendez, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian”

5. ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, is the senior U.S. Senator from the State of New Jersey. MENENDEZ served as mayor of Union City, New Jersey, and a member of the New Jersey state legislature until 1993, when he was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives representing a New Jersey district. MENENDEZ was appointed to the U.S. Senate in 2006, subsequently elected in 2006, and reelected in 2012 and 2018. At all times relevant to this Indictment, MENENDEZ held a leadership position on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee (the “SFRC”), first as the Ranking Member and then the Chairman, and therefore possessed influence over, among other things, the Executive Branch’s decisions to provide foreign military sales, foreign military financing, and other aid or support to or for the benefit of the Government of Egypt. By virtue of his position as the senior U.S. Senator from the State of New Jersey, at all times relevant to this Indictment, MENENDEZ had the ability to recommend to the President that a particular individual be nominated to serve as the U.S. Attorney for the District of New Jersey. At all times relevant to this Indictment, the official public website for MENENDEZ’s Senate office stated that his office could not take certain actions, including actions to influence private business matters, and actions to intervene with judicial issues and criminal trials, as detailed in the below excerpt from the website.

BOB MENENDEZ

OUR OFFICE CANNOT

COMPEL an agency to act in your favor or expedite your case.

OVERTURN or influence matters involving private businesses.

INTERVENE with judicial issues, provide legal advice or recommend an attorney. Our Senate office cannot legally get involved with pending litigation, including questions about criminal trials or imprisonment, child custody issues, and civil lawsuits. My office cannot overturn or in any way influence a court's decision.

6. NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a "Nadine Arslanian," the defendant, began dating ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, in or about early February 2018. They became engaged in or about early October 2019, and married in or about early October 2020. Before NADINE MENENDEZ began dating MENENDEZ, she was unemployed. Beginning in at least in or about 2018, NADINE MENENDEZ had meetings and direct communications with multiple Egyptian officials, at least some of whom she understood were intelligence officials, and received requests from them, and conveyed information and requests from them to MENENDEZ.

The Three New Jersey Businessmen

7. At all times relevant to this Indictment, WAEL HANA, a/k/a "Will Hana," the defendant, who is originally from Egypt, resided principally in New Jersey, and maintained close connections with Egyptian officials. HANA and NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a "Nadine Arslanian," the defendant, were friends for many years before she began dating ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant. A court-authorized search in or about November 2019 of a cellphone HANA used revealed thousands of text messages between HANA and NADINE MENENDEZ, many of which NADINE MENENDEZ deleted from her own cellphone. That search also revealed thousands of text messages, many via an encrypted application, with Egyptian military and intelligence officials, pertaining to various topics, including MENENDEZ, and including requests and directives for HANA to act upon.

8. FRED DAIBES, the defendant, is a New Jersey real estate developer, a founder of a New Jersey-based bank, and a business associate of WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendant. On or about October 30, 2018, DAIBES was charged by the United States Attorney’s Office for the District of New Jersey with obtaining loans under false pretenses from that bank. DAIBES was a longtime fundraiser for ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant.

9. Jose Uribe is a businessman who resides in New Jersey and works in the trucking and insurance business, after having previously been convicted of fraud and having his insurance broker’s license revoked. Uribe is a business associate and friend of WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendant. Uribe developed a relationship with ROBERT MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendants, in or about 2018.

Relevant Statutory Background on FARA

10. The Foreign Agents Registration Act (“FARA”), 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., is a federal registration and disclosure statute that requires any person agreeing to act or acting in the United States as “an agent of a foreign principal” to register with the United States Attorney General if he or she agrees to engage or engages, directly or through another person, in certain types of conduct, such as political activities, political consulting, public relations, or publicity activities, for or in the interest of the foreign principal. Such registrations are made to the National Security Division’s Foreign Agents Registration Act Unit within the U.S. Department of Justice.

11. The purpose of FARA is to prevent covert influence by foreign principals. Proper registration under the statute allows the United States Government and the American people to evaluate the statements and activities of individuals who are serving as agents of foreign principals in light of their status as foreign agents. Among other things, a FARA registration, which is publicly available, reveals the identity of the foreign principal on whose behalf a registrant performs services, the type of services the registrant provides the foreign principal, the source and amount of compensation the registrant receives from the foreign principal, and any political campaign contributions made by the registrant while the registrant was acting as an agent of the foreign principal.

12. Public officials, including Members of Congress, are prohibited by law from agreeing to be or acting as an agent of a foreign principal required to register under FARA. At all times relevant to this Indictment, the Senate Ethics Manual, which was publicly available, stated, among other things, “Regardless of compensation, a public official may not act as an agent or attorney for a foreign principal required to register under the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, that is, generally, those individuals engaged in lobbying, political, or propaganda activities on behalf of foreign governments or political parties,” citing Title 18, United States Code, Section 219.

MENENDEZ’s Public Statements about FARA, and NADINE MENENDEZ’s and HANA’s Failure to Register

13. Between at least approximately 2020 and 2022, ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, made multiple requests for the U.S. Department of Justice to commence an investigation against another person for allegedly failing to register under FARA. In particular, on or about May 18, 2020, MENENDEZ sent a letter to the then-head of the National Security Division asking the Department of Justice to investigate another individual who had previously served as a Member of Congress (the “Former Member of Congress”) for allegedly failing to register as a foreign agent. In that letter, MENENDEZ stated, “The Act is clear that acting directly or indirectly in any capacity on behalf of a foreign principal triggers the requirement to register under FARA.” Moreover, on or about May 4, 2022, MENENDEZ sent a second letter to the U.S. Attorney General reiterating his request that the Former Member of Congress be investigated for allegedly failing to register as a foreign agent. In that second letter, MENENDEZ stated, “If [the Former Member of Congress] carried out work that requires registration under FARA, it is imperative that the Justice Department ensure he is held to account.” The first of these letters was posted on the official public website for MENENDEZ’s Senate office and the official public website for the SFRC, and the second of these letters was posted on the official public website for the SFRC.

14. As a public official, ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, was prohibited from serving as a foreign agent.

15. NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” and WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendants, have never registered as foreign agents or lobbyists.

MENENDEZ Agrees to Take Actions that Benefit Egypt and HANA in Exchange for Promises of Things of Value

16. In or about early 2018, NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendant, informed WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendant, that she was dating ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant. In the following months and years, HANA and NADINE MENENDEZ worked to introduce Egyptian intelligence and military officials to MENENDEZ for the purpose of establishing and solidifying a corrupt agreement in which HANA, with assistance from FRED DAIBES, the defendant, and Jose Uribe, provided hundreds of thousands of dollars of bribes to MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ, in exchange for MENENDEZ's acts and breaches of duty to benefit the Government of Egypt, HANA, and others, including with respect to foreign military sales and foreign military financing.

Background on Foreign Military Sales and Foreign Military Financing

17. At all times relevant to this Indictment, Egypt was among the largest recipients in the world of U.S. military aid. Between approximately 2018 and approximately 2022, the U.S. Government supplied substantial military aid to Egypt, including in the form of grants of over $1 billion per year ("foreign military financing"), and in the form of direct government-to-government sales of military equipment ("foreign military sales"), which Egypt typically paid for with foreign military financing, and which the Executive Branch was required to notify Congress about under certain circumstances prior to going forward with those sales. The U.S. Department of State (the "State Department") played a central role in reviewing and approving foreign military sales to Egypt and obligating foreign military financing to Egypt, which was conditioned on certain certifications being made by the State Department. As a matter of longstanding, voluntary practice, the State Department would typically honor so-called "holds" placed by the Chairman or the Ranking Member of the SFRC on both foreign military financing and foreign military sales. In other words, the State Department would typically not proceed with a transfer of foreign military financing grant money to Egypt's bank account (located at all relevant times in Manhattan), or with a foreign military sale to Egypt, while the Chairman or the Ranking Member of the SFRC had not signed off on, and was maintaining a "hold" on, such a transfer or sale. As a result, at all times relevant to the Indictment, ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, as the Chairman or the Ranking Member of the SFRC, possessed substantial influence over foreign military sales and foreign military financing to Egypt.

18. For at least several years prior to 2018, despite its strategically important relationship with the U.S. and in the Middle East, Egypt had often faced resistance in obtaining foreign military financing and foreign military sales. For example, in or about August 2017, the State Department announced that it was withholding $195 million in foreign military financing until Egypt could demonstrate improvements on human rights and democracy, and was canceling an additional $65.7 million in foreign military financing to Egypt. By in or about early 2018, multiple U.S. Senators had raised human rights or rule-of-law objections to foreign military financing to Egypt, and no foreign military sales of offensive military equipment to Egypt requiring congressional notification had been concluded since in or about March 2016.

HANA and NADINE MENENDEZ Introduce Egyptian Officials to MENENDEZ for Corrupt Purposes

19. In or about 2018, shortly after ROBERT MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendants, began dating, WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendant, and NADINE MENENDEZ arranged a series of meetings and dinners with MENENDEZ—paid for by HANA or his associates—at which Egyptian officials raised, among other things, requests related to foreign military sales and foreign military financing. In exchange for MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ’s promise that MENENDEZ would, among other things, use his power and authority to facilitate such sales and financing to Egypt, HANA promised, among other things, to put NADINE MENENDEZ on the payroll of his company in a low-or-no-show job. For example:

a. In or about March 2018, MENENDEZ met with an Egyptian military official (“Egyptian Official-1”) and other Egyptian military officials at a meeting arranged and attended by his then-girlfriend NADINE MENENDEZ and her friend HANA. MENENDEZ allowed NADINE MENENDEZ and HANA to arrange and participate in this meeting, which took place at MENENDEZ’s Senate office in Washington, D.C. and included discussions of foreign military financing to Egypt, among other topics. A photograph taken during the meeting is depicted below.

b. MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ again met with HANA on or about May 6, 2018. Later that same day, MENENDEZ sought from the State Department non-public information regarding the number and nationality of persons serving at the U.S. Embassy in Cairo, Egypt. Although this information was not classified, it was deemed highly sensitive because it could pose significant operational security concerns if disclosed to a foreign government or if made public. Without telling his professional staff, SFRC staff, or the State Department that he was doing so, on or about May 7, 2018, MENENDEZ texted that sensitive, non-public embassy information to his then-girlfriend NADINE MENENDEZ, writing:

Just FYI. [a number] Americans – combination of diplomats, commercial service, USAID, other [a number] Egyptians, locally employed staff This is what's at American embassy. [Summary of ratio] are Egyptians working at Embassy.

NADINE MENENDEZ forwarded this message to HANA, who forwarded it to an Egyptian government official (“Egyptian Official-2”).

c. That same month, in or about May 2018, HANA hosted another dinner at a high-end restaurant with MENENDEZ, during which MENENDEZ disclosed to HANA non-public information about the United States's provision of military aid to Egypt. Shortly after the dinner, HANA texted Egyptian Official-1, "The ban on small arms and ammunition to Egypt has been lifted. That means sales can begin. That will include sniper rifles among other articles."

d. Later that month, in or about May 2018, NADINE MENENDEZ conveyed to MENENDEZ a request from an Egyptian official seeking assistance in editing and drafting a letter lobbying other U.S. Senators to support U.S. aid to Egypt. NADINE MENENDEZ explained that she wanted MENENDEZ to prepare the letter because HANA and an Egyptian official, whom she referred to as the "General" in her communications with MENENDEZ, had gotten NADINE MENENDEZ "clearance for a project." In response, MENENDEZ secretly edited and ghost-wrote the requested letter on behalf of Egypt seeking to convince other U.S. Senators to release a hold on $300 million in aid to Egypt. MENENDEZ sent this ghost-written letter to NADINE MENENDEZ from his personal email account. NADINE MENENDEZ forwarded the ghost-written letter to HANA, facilitating HANA's conveyance of the revised draft back to Egyptian officials. Both MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ deleted the email in which NADINE MENENDEZ asked MENENDEZ to write this letter.

20. In or about July 2018, ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, met again with Egyptian Official-1 and multiple other Egyptian military officials to discuss foreign military financing and foreign military sales during a meeting that was arranged, scheduled, and attended by NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a "Nadine Arslanian," and WAEL HANA, a/k/a "Will Hana," the defendants. In advance of that meeting, the Egyptian Government, through HANA and NADINE MENENDEZ, provided to MENENDEZ briefing materials advocating Egyptian foreign policy goals and positions and setting forth Egypt's requests for the approval of foreign military financing and foreign military sales to Egypt. The next day, MENENDEZ texted

NADINE MENENDEZ:

Tell Will [HANA] I am going to sign off this sale to Egypt today.
Egypt: 46,000 120MM Target Practice Rounds and 10,000 Rounds
Tank Ammunition: $99 million

NOTE: These tank rounds are for tanks they have had for many years. They are using these in the Sinai for the counter-terrorism campaign.

NADINE MENENDEZ forwarded this text to HANA, who forwarded it to Egyptian Official-1 and Egyptian Official-2. Egyptian Official-1 replied with a “thumbs up” emoji.

21. On or about May 21, 2019, ROBERT MENENDEZ, NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” and WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendants, met with an Egyptian intelligence official (“Egyptian Official-3”) at MENENDEZ’s Senate office in Washington, D.C. During this meeting, the group discussed a human rights matter pertaining to the resolution of a claim involving the serious injuries suffered by an American citizen, who was injured in a 2015 airstrike by the Egyptian military using a U.S.-manufactured Apache helicopter. The incident leading to the citizen’s injuries and the perception of certain Members of Congress that the Government of Egypt was not willing to provide fair compensation to the injured citizen for the attack resulted in objections by some Members of Congress to the awarding of certain military aid to Egypt. Shortly after the meeting with Egyptian Official-3, MENENDEZ conducted a web search for the name of that American citizen and visited a website that contained an article about the citizen’s claim. Approximately a week later, using an encrypted messaging application, Egyptian Official-3 texted HANA in Arabic regarding this human rights matter, writing, in part, that if MENENDEZ helped resolve the matter, “he will sit very comfortably,” to which HANA replied, “orders, consider it done.” Egyptian Official-3 then texted HANA screenshots of a statement from the American citizen’s attorney pertaining to the claim, which HANA then forwarded a few days later to NADINE MENENDEZ, who in turn forwarded it to MENENDEZ. NADINE MENENDEZ subsequently deleted her text messages with HANA about this matter.

MENENDEZ Takes Action to Protect IS EG Halal

HANA Fails to Deliver on Promised Bribe Payments

22. WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendant, repeatedly promised NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendant, payments, including through a low-or-no-show job, from IS EG Halal Certified, Inc. (“IS EG Halal”), a New Jersey company that HANA operated with financial support and backing from FRED DAIBES, the defendant, in furtherance of the scheme. However, IS EG Halal had little to no revenue between in or about 2018 and in or about early 2019, and HANA did not deliver on his promises to make those payments during this time period.

23. After several months of nonpayment following the initial March 2018 meeting described in paragraph 19.a, above, NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendant, complained to multiple associates of WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendant, about HANA’s failure to pay her, and caused at least one of them to believe that ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, would cease acting for HANA’s benefit and at his request, including with respect to Egypt, unless HANA came through on his promises and paid her. NADINE MENENDEZ also complained directly to MENENDEZ about HANA’s as-yet-unfulfilled promises, writing, “I have been so upset all morning. Will left for Egypt yesterday supposedly and now thinks he’s king of the world and has both countries wrapped around his pinky. I really hope they replace him.”

HANA Obtains a Lucrative Monopoly for IS EG Halal

24. In or about the spring of 2019, the Government of Egypt granted IS EG Halal an exclusive monopoly on the certification of U.S. food exports to Egypt as compliant with halal standards, despite the fact that neither WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendant, nor his company, had experience with halal certification. Prior to this action, a number of other U.S. companies had been licensed to certify U.S. meat exports to Egypt for halal compliance for years.

25. The monopoly for IS EG Halal allowed WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendant, to provide payments to NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” and ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendants. Indeed, on or about April 7, 2019, an Egyptian government official informed HANA that IS EG Halal was likely to become Egypt’s sole halal certifier for imports from the U.S. market. The next day, NADINE MENENDEZ texted MENENDEZ, “Seems like halal went through. It might be a fantastic 2019 all the way around.”

NADINE MENENDEZ Forms an LLC to Receive Bribe Payments

26. In or about June 2019, after IS EG Halal obtained its monopoly, NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendant, formed an entity titled Strategic International Business Consultants, LLC (“Strategic International Business Consultants”) in New Jersey, with the assistance of ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant. The company was used to receive bribe payments in furtherance of the crimes charged herein. When sending a relative information about the formation of her company, NADINE MENENDEZ stated, by text message, “every time I’m in a middle person for a deal I am asking to get paid and this is my consulting company.”

MENENDEZ Intervenes to Protect the Lucrative Monopoly

27. The IS EG Halal monopoly advanced the scheme by, among other things, providing a revenue stream from which WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendant, could make good on the bribe payments he had promised to ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, through NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendant. The monopoly also resulted in increased costs for various U.S. meat suppliers and others. As a result, in or about April and May 2019, multiple U.S. Government officials from the U.S. Department of Agriculture (“USDA”) contacted the Government of Egypt objecting to and seeking reconsideration of its grant of monopoly rights to IS EG Halal, and the USDA prepared a public report regarding the increased cost for halal certification and the likely disruption to the U.S. market caused by the new monopoly.

28. During the May 21, 2019 meeting described in paragraph 21 above among ROBERT MENENDEZ, NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” and WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendants, and Egyptian Official-3, HANA also requested MENENDEZ’s assistance to counter the USDA’s objections to IS EG Halal’s monopoly. Later that evening, the same participants, along with an Egyptian-American associate of HANA, met at a steakhouse in Washington, D.C. for dinner, during which dinner there was discussion of various matters of foreign policy, and NADINE MENENDEZ stated, “what else can the love of my life do for you?” This dinner is depicted below.

29. Over the next two days, on or about May 22 and 23, 2019, WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendant, provided NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendant, with a variety of materials regarding the USDA’s objections to IS EG Halal’s monopoly, some of which HANA received from an Egyptian official. NADINE MENENDEZ then texted certain of those materials to ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, who later deleted them.

30. On or about May 23, 2019, ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, called a high-level USDA official (“Official-1”) and insisted, in sum and substance, that the USDA stop opposing IS EG Halal’s status as sole halal certifier. When Official-1 attempted to explain why the monopoly was detrimental to U.S. interests, MENENDEZ reiterated his demand, in sum and substance, that the USDA stop interfering with IS EG Halal’s monopoly. Official-1 did not accede to MENENDEZ’s demand, but IS EG Halal nevertheless kept its monopoly.

IS EG Halal is Used to Fund Bribe Payments

31. After financially benefitting from IS EG Halal’s monopoly status as the sole halal certifier, WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendant, at times with the assistance of FRED

DAIBES, the defendant, and Jose Uribe, provided payments to ROBERT MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendants, in furtherance of the scheme.

32. For example, in or about July 2019, after the mortgage company for the residence of NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendant, initiated foreclosure proceedings, WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendant, caused IS EG Halal to pay $23,568.54 to the company that held NADINE MENENDEZ’s mortgage to bring NADINE MENENDEZ’s mortgage current. HANA made this payment following a series of discussions with NADINE MENENDEZ, as well FRED DAIBES, the defendant, and Jose Uribe, about various options for bringing the mortgage current. When at one point Uribe responded to NADINE MENENDEZ that HANA might balk at the amount required to bring the mortgage current, NADINE MENENDEZ replied, in part, “When I feel comfortable and plan the trip to Egypt he [i.e., HANA] will be more powerful than the president of Egypt.” Thereafter, Uribe and HANA worked to facilitate the payments, and ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, continued taking actions to assist HANA and Egypt, including those discussed below.

33. A few months later, in or about September 2019, NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendant, texted FRED DAIBES, the defendant, complaining that WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendant, had not paid her what he owed her. DAIBES replied to NADINE MENENDEZ, “Nadine I personally gave Bob a check for September.”

34. Several days later, NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendant, texted ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, to complain that WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” and FRED DAIBES, the defendants, had not made payments, writing, “I am soooooo upset,” stating that HANA had not left her an envelope, and remarking, “I thought Fred [DAIBES] would make sure it’s there and the second day in a row there is nothing.” NADINE MENENDEZ also wrote, “I thought after everything that happened especially last Saturday and that week [referring to meetings MENENDEZ had with senior Egyptian officials] that at least he would honor his word one time I don't know if I should text Fred [DAIBES] or wait what should I do?" MENENDEZ responded, "No, you should not text or email." Soon thereafter, NADINE MENENDEZ called DAIBES. IS EG Halal issued a $10,000 check to Strategic International Business Consultants the next day, on or about September 28, 2019. In total, IS EG Halal issued three $10,000 checks to Strategic International Business Consultants, dated August 30, September 28, and November 5, 2019, which DAIBES helped provide or facilitate.

HANA and DAIBES Continue to Seek Action from MENENDEZ for Egypt

35. During the same period when IS EG Halal issued these checks, on or about September 9, 2019, Egyptian Official-3 texted WAEL HANA, a/k/a "Will Hana," the defendant, that "[A State Department employee] told [an Egyptian diplomatic official] today that senator Menendize [sic] put an [sic] hold on a billion $ of usaid to Egypt before the recess !!!!" and "Is this true ?" HANA responded to Egyptian Official-3 that HANA would ask. HANA then attempted to contact NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a "Nadine Arslanian," the defendant. Several minutes later, HANA called FRED DAIBES, the defendant, via an encrypted messaging program, and forwarded Egyptian Official-3's text message to DAIBES. DAIBES promptly called ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, and then DAIBES called HANA back via the same encrypted messaging program. Less than two minutes later, HANA texted Egyptian Official-3, writing that it was not true and "he" (i.e., MENENDEZ) did not know anything about the hold on U.S. aid to Egypt.

36. Also in or about September 2019, ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, offered to provide his assistance to Egypt and to WAEL HANA, a/k/a "Will Hana," the defendant, during an official trip to India. Following a dinner among HANA, MENENDEZ, and NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a "Nadine Arslanian," the defendant, HANA texted Egyptian Official-3, "our man [MENENDEZ] is traveling to India after two weeks and he is asking if there any message we need or anything for ISEG?” Later that same month, MENENDEZ, HANA, and FRED DAIBES, the defendant, met in Manhattan with Egyptian Official-3.

37. The meetings between ROBERT MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendants, and Egyptian officials, and the receipt of things of value by MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ in exchange for MENENDEZ’s promises to take actions favorable to Egypt and WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendant, and others, continued through 2020 and into 2022. For example:

a. In or about March 2020, NADINE MENENDEZ texted Egyptian Official-3, “anytime you need anything you have my number and we will make everything happen.” A few days later she arranged for MENENDEZ to meet with Egyptian Official-3, whom NADINE MENENDEZ referred to as “the general,” regarding negotiations between Egypt, Ethiopia, and Sudan over a dam on the Nile River being built by Ethiopia, known as the Grand Ethiopian Renaissance Dam (the “Dam”), which was generally regarded as one of the most important foreign policy issues for Egypt. Within one month, in or about April 2020, MENENDEZ wrote a letter to the then-Secretary of the Treasury and the then-Secretary of State regarding the Dam, beginning the letter, “I am writing to express my concern about the stalled negotiations between Egypt, Ethiopia, and Sudan over [the Dam],” and stating, “I therefore urge you to significantly increase the State Department’s engagement on negotiations surrounding the [Dam].”

b. In or about October 2020, MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ met for dinner with Egyptian Official-3 and another Egyptian official (“Egyptian Official-4”) at a restaurant in Edgewater, New Jersey. After this dinner, NADINE MENENDEZ and Egyptian Official-4 began texting with each other on an ongoing basis and had additional in-person meetings, including a dinner they had in or about December 2020 with MENENDEZ and Egyptian Official-3.

c. In or about early 2021, HANA used IS EG Halal funds to cause two exercise machines and an air purifier, among other items, collectively worth thousands of dollars, to be purchased online and delivered to the house of MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ.

d. On or about June 21, 2021, NADINE MENENDEZ and Egyptian Official-4 organized a private meeting between MENENDEZ and a senior Egyptian intelligence official (“Egyptian Official-5”) in a hotel in Washington, D.C. prior to a meeting between Egyptian Official-5 and other U.S. Senators the next day. On the day of the private meeting, MENENDEZ provided NADINE MENENDEZ with a copy of a news article reporting on questions that other U.S. Senators intended to ask Egyptian Official-5 regarding a human rights issue. NADINE MENENDEZ then sent that article to Egyptian Official-4, who responded, “Thanks you so much, chairman [i.e., MENENDEZ, the Chairman of the SFRC] also raised it today, we appreciate it.” The next day, NADINE MENENDEZ texted Egyptian Official-4 that she hoped the article she had sent was helpful, and stated, “I just thought it would be better to know ahead of time what is being talked about and this way you can prepare your rebuttals.”

e. On or about June 23, 2021—i.e., two days after the private meeting between MENENDEZ and Egyptian Official-5—HANA purchased 22 one-ounce gold bars, each with a unique serial number. Two of these one-ounce gold bars were subsequently found during the court-authorized search in June 2022 of the residence of MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ. During the relevant time periods, the spot market price of gold was approximately $1,800 per ounce.

f. In or about the fall of 2021, NADINE MENENDEZ communicated directly with Egyptian Official-4 to arrange a trip for MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ to Egypt, which they took in or about October 2021. NADINE MENENDEZ and Egyptian Official-4 originally planned the trip as an unofficial visit, and therefore without supervision from the State Department. When an SFRC staffer contacted the U.S. Embassy in Cairo regarding the trip, causing the planned trip to become a formal congressional delegation under the supervision of the State Department, Egyptian Official-4 texted NADINE MENENDEZ “i will probably loose [sic] my job” and “SOS”. NADINE MENENDEZ forwarded this text to MENENDEZ. HANA was also in Egypt during MENENDEZ’s and NADINE MENENDEZ’s trip, and they met for at least one dinner while there. During that trip, MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ also met with multiple Egyptian officials, including for a private dinner at the home of Egyptian Official-5, a photo of which is below.

g. In or about January 2022, MENENDEZ sent NADINE MENENDEZ a link to a news article reporting on two pending foreign military sales to Egypt totaling approximately $2.5 billion dollars. NADINE MENENDEZ forwarded this link to HANA, writing, “Bob had to sign off on this.”

38. In exchange for the promises and acts set forth above, WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” and FRED DAIBES, the defendants, provided multiple things of value to ROBERT MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendants, including with the assistance of Jose Uribe. Those things of value included hundreds of thousands of dollars in checks, cash, and gold, some of which was recovered during the June 2022 court-authorized search of the residence of MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ described above. NADINE MENENDEZ caused some of the gold to be sold in Manhattan prior to the search and deposited the proceeds into bank accounts she controlled.

MENENDEZ Agrees to Disrupt New Jersey State Criminal Matters in Exchange for a Mercedes-Benz Convertible

39. In or about 2019, WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendant, and Jose Uribe, offered and then helped to buy a new Mercedes-Benz C-300 convertible (the “Mercedes-Benz Convertible”) worth more than $60,000 for NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” and ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendants. In exchange, MENENDEZ agreed and sought to interfere in a New Jersey state criminal prosecution of an associate of Uribe (the “New Jersey Defendant”) and a state criminal investigation involving an employee of Uribe (the “New Jersey Investigative Subject”), whom Uribe referred to as a relative in communicating with NADINE MENENDEZ. Specifically, MENENDEZ contacted a senior state prosecutor in the Office of the New Jersey Attorney General who supervised the prosecution of the New Jersey Defendant and the investigation involving the New Jersey Investigative Subject (“Official-2”) in an attempt, through advice and pressure, to cause Official-2 to resolve these matters favorably to the New Jersey Defendant and the New Jersey Investigative Subject. Official-2 considered ROBERT MENENDEZ’s actions inappropriate and did not agree to intervene.

MENENDEZ Agrees to Disrupt the Prosecution of the New Jersey Defendant

40. The first matter that ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, agreed to attempt to influence concerned the New Jersey Defendant. The New Jersey Defendant was an associate of Jose Uribe, and was charged with insurance fraud relating to a trucking company (“Trucking Company-1”), the insurance of which was brokered by a company controlled by Uribe (the “Insurance Company”). The New Jersey Investigative Subject, an employee of Uribe who worked at the Insurance Company and whom Uribe referred to as a relative, allegedly was involved in submitting the insurance applications at issue in the New Jersey Defendant’s criminal case. Uribe was implicated in the conduct with which the New Jersey Defendant was charged, and Uribe raised concerns about the case to WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendant, among others, writing in or about April 2018 about the case that “the deal is to kill and stop all investigation.”

41. NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendant, was involved in a car accident in or about December 2018 that left her without a car. On multiple occasions up to and including in or about January 2019, NADINE MENENDEZ sent text messages to WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendant, about her lack of a car.

42. Beginning in or about January 2019, ROBERT MENENDEZ, NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendant, and Jose Uribe agreed that MENENDEZ would attempt to intervene with Official-2 to influence the prosecution of the New Jersey Defendant in exchange for a car. For example:

a. On or about January 26, 2019, NADINE MENENDEZ invited HANA and Uribe to a dinner with her and MENENDEZ. MENENDEZ, NADINE MENENDEZ, and HANA had the dinner on or about January 27 without Uribe, who could not attend because of a scheduling conflict. After the dinner, HANA sent NADINE MENENDEZ a series of text messages providing facts about the prosecution of the New Jersey Defendant. NADINE MENENDEZ subsequently deleted these text messages.

b. On or about January 29, 2019—i.e., two days after the dinner described in paragraph 42.a, above—MENENDEZ called Official-2 and spoke with him in an attempt, through advice and pressure, to cause a resolution of the prosecution in the New Jersey Defendant’s favor. In preparation for this call, MENENDEZ requested and received multiple text messages from NADINE MENENDEZ about the New Jersey Defendant, including the charges he was facing, which NADINE MENENDEZ, in turn, requested and received from HANA. MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ both subsequently deleted these text messages.

c. After being contacted by MENENDEZ, to avoid any potential inappropriate influence in the case, Official-2 did not share with the prosecution team that MENENDEZ had contacted him about the matter, and did not intervene in the matter. Nonetheless, in or about April 2019, the New Jersey Defendant resolved his criminal prosecution with a guilty plea pursuant to a plea agreement that recommended a non-incarceratory sentence. This resolution was more favorable for the New Jersey Defendant than the prosecutors’ initial plea offer earlier in the case.

Uribe Provides NADINE MENENDEZ with a Luxury Car

43. After ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, agreed to and did call Official-2 about the New Jersey Defendant’s case in or about January 2019, WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendant, and Jose Uribe worked to provide NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendant, with the Mercedes-Benz Convertible, as HANA had previously promised. Only a few days after MENENDEZ’s first call to Official-2, on or about February 3, 2019, NADINE MENENDEZ texted HANA, “All is GREAT! I’m so excited to get a car next week. !!” After some delays, Uribe ultimately facilitated NADINE MENENDEZ’s purchase of the car through the following events, among others:

a. On or about March 12, 2019, NADINE MENENDEZ called Uribe and spoke with him for over 21 minutes. After the call, Uribe texted NADINE MENENDEZ, “I am real. I will stand by my word.”

b. On or about March 27, 2019, Uribe texted NADINE MENENDEZ the information for a Mercedes-Benz dealership in Edison, New Jersey. Over the next several days, Uribe worked to put NADINE MENENDEZ in touch with a salesman at the car dealership. Once at the dealership, NADINE MENENDEZ sent MENENDEZ photos of two different cars to seek his input on the color scheme.

c. On or about April 3, 2019, NADINE MENENDEZ texted a Mercedes-Benz car dealership salesperson that Uribe said she would be going to the dealership on April 5 to pick up the car. Later that day, Uribe texted an associate (“Associate-1”), a message roughly translated from Spanish as, “I did everything on this side. I need 15k cash this afternoon.” Later that day, NADINE MENENDEZ texted Uribe, “You are a miracle worker who makes dreams come true I will always remember that.”

d. On or about April 4, 2019, NADINE MENENDEZ left MENENDEZ a voicemail saying that she was going “to meet Jose for five minutes” and then met Uribe in the parking lot of a restaurant where Uribe provided NADINE MENENDEZ with approximately $15,000 in cash.

e. The next day, NADINE MENENDEZ purchased the Mercedes-Benz Convertible, making a $15,000 down payment with a combination of cash, a credit card, and several checks, and taking out an automotive loan to finance the remainder of the approximately $60,000 purchase price. A number of the statements NADINE MENENDEZ made on the application in order to secure the loan financing were false, including statements about her employment and income. After the purchase was complete, NADINE MENENDEZ messaged MENENDEZ, “Congratulations mon amour de la vie, we are the proud owners of a 2019 Mercedes. ❤️.” Later that day, after Uribe asked her, “are you happy?,” NADINE MENENDEZ responded, “I will never forget this.” NADINE MENENDEZ later texted MENENDEZ a photo of the Mercedes-Benz Convertible, which is below.

f. After initially providing cash to NADINE MENENDEZ to purchase the Mercedes Benz Convertible, Uribe subsequently caused monthly financing payments to be paid for the car, which were routed either through one of Uribe’s business associates or through a company Uribe controlled. In order to make the initial payments, in or about early May 2019, Uribe asked a business associate of his (“Associate-2”) to make a payment for the Mercedes-Benz Convertible from Associate-2’s corporate bank account, which had previously been opened at a bank branch in the Bronx. Uribe explained to Associate-2, in making this request, that Uribe did not want his own name to be associated with the payment. Uribe and Associate-2 manually made each periodic payment from in or about May 2019 through in or about October 2019, either from Associate-2's bank account or from an account owned by a trucking company nominally owned by a relative of Uribe ("Trucking Company-2").

MENENDEZ Agrees to Disrupt the New Jersey Investigation

44. In or about late July 2019, a New Jersey detective sought to interview the New Jersey Investigative Subject in a criminal investigation related to the prosecution of the New Jersey Defendant. Following that interview request, ROBERT MENENDEZ, and NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a "Nadine Arslanian," the defendants, and Jose Uribe, agreed that MENENDEZ would attempt to intervene with Official-2 again. For example:

a. After learning of this interview request, Uribe contacted NADINE MENENDEZ and met with her on or about the evening of July 31, 2019. The next morning, Uribe sent NADINE MENENDEZ a series of texts saying that he did not want anyone to "bother" the New Jersey Investigative Subject (who as discussed above in paragraph 40 was an insurance broker at the Insurance Company Uribe controlled), and also saying that "[w]e need to make things go away," "[w]e need to move fast," and "[w]e can still stop this." That day, NADINE MENENDEZ wrote to Uribe, among other things, that she would "address it first thing tomorrow morning or tonight depending on when he [i.e., MENENDEZ] is home," and adding, "he will be home first thing tomorrow I will address it first thing tomorrow and have the phone calls go out." Later that day, MENENDEZ performed a Google search for the initials of the state agency employing the insurance fraud investigator who was seeking to interview the New Jersey Investigative Subject. A few days later NADINE MENENDEZ texted Uribe that MENENDEZ had commented about Uribe's two requests related to these criminal matters, that "it would've been so so easy if we had wrapped both [requests] together."

b. On or about September 3, 2019, Uribe—who at this point had been making the periodic payments for the Mercedes-Benz Convertible for several months—texted NADINE MENENDEZ, “Please don’t forget about me. I will never forget about you” and “I need peace.” The next day, on or about September 4, 2019, MENENDEZ called Official-2 to schedule an in-person meeting with Official-2 for September 6, 2019, at MENENDEZ’s Senate office in Newark, New Jersey. The day after that call—i.e., September 5, 2019—Uribe, MENENDEZ, and NADINE MENENDEZ met at NADINE MENENDEZ’s house.

c. On or about September 6, 2019, MENENDEZ met with Official-2 and another senior official at the Office of the New Jersey Attorney General at MENENDEZ’s Senate office in Newark, New Jersey in an attempt, through advice and pressure, to cause Official-2 to favorably resolve the investigation involving the New Jersey Investigative Subject. After the meeting, MENENDEZ met with Uribe at MENENDEZ’s apartment. Uribe thereafter texted another business associate of his (“Associate-3”) that the meeting between MENENDEZ and Official-2 had been a “good meeting” and that—while nothing was final, to Uribe’s understanding—MENENDEZ had informed Uribe that the meeting with Official-2 was “very positive.”

d. Over the next several weeks following the September 6, 2019 meeting between MENENDEZ and Official-2, Uribe repeatedly texted NADINE MENENDEZ asking for updates and stating that he needed “peace.”

e. On or about October 29, 2019—the day after Uribe texted NADINE MENENDEZ, “I always text you on Monday in case you have an update. I just need peace.”—MENENDEZ called Uribe from his Senate office in Washington, D.C. Within minutes of getting off the phone, Uribe texted NADINE MENENDEZ, writing, “I just got a call and I am a very happy person.” and “GOD bless you and him for ever.” Several nights later, MENENDEZ, NADINE MENENDEZ, Uribe, and Associate-3 met for a celebratory dinner and toasted with a bottle of champagne, as depicted below.

f. On or about November 5, 2019—i.e., several days after receiving the call from MENENDEZ and meeting for the celebratory champagne dinner—Uribe texted NADINE MENENDEZ asking for information that would allow him to set up automatic payments for the Mercedes-Benz Convertible. Two minutes after saying he intended to set up automatic payments, Uribe texted NADINE MENENDEZ again, writing, “I have so much peace. Gracias a DIOS and to you guys.”

g. Neither Official-2 nor the other senior official present at the September 6, 2019 meeting with MENENDEZ described in paragraph 44.c intervened in the investigation involving the New Jersey Investigative Subject. That investigation closed without charges.

h. On or about November 9, 2019, Uribe set up online payments for the Mercedes-Benz Convertible. Using the online payment system, Uribe caused a trucking company associated with him (“Trucking Company-3”) to make at least approximately 32 monthly payments on the Mercedes-Benz Convertible. Together with the payments Uribe caused Associate-2 to make for the Mercedes-Benz Convertible, Uribe caused more than $30,000 to be paid for the purchase of the car, not including the cash Uribe had provided in a parking lot to NADINE MENENDEZ to pay towards the down payment.

MENENDEZ Accepts Things of Value, Including Cash and Gold Bars, Knowing that DAIBES Expected MENENDEZ in Exchange to Disrupt a Federal Criminal Prosecution and to Act for the Benefit of the Government of Qatar and DAIBES

45. From at least in or about December 2020 to at least in or about 2023, ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, accepted things of value from FRED DAIBES, the defendant, knowing that DAIBES expected MENENDEZ in exchange to influence the pending federal prosecution of DAIBES, and to use his influence and power and breach his official duty to benefit the Government of Qatar and DAIBES. Specifically, MENENDEZ agreed to and did attempt to influence the pending federal prosecution of DAIBES, in exchange for cash, furniture, and gold bars that DAIBES provided to MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendant. Moreover, when he accepted at least certain of those things of value from DAIBES, MENENDEZ knew that DAIBES also expected MENENDEZ in exchange to take action to benefit the Government of Qatar, and thereby benefit DAIBES, who was seeking millions of dollars in investment from a fund with ties to the Government of Qatar.

MENENDEZ Promises and Seeks to Disrupt the Prosecution of DAIBES in Exchange for Cash, Furniture, and Gold Bars

46. From at least in or about December 2020 to at least in or about early 2022, ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, agreed to attempt to influence and attempted to influence the pending federal prosecution of FRED DAIBES, the defendant, in exchange for cash, furniture, and gold bars that DAIBES provided to MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendant, including by recommending that the President nominate a candidate for U.S. Attorney for the District of New Jersey who MENENDEZ believed could be influenced by MENENDEZ with respect to DAIBES’s case, and by attempting to influence the U.S. Attorney’s Office for the District of New Jersey to act favorably in DAIBES’s case.

47. In or about December 2020, ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, met with an individual who would later be nominated to be the U.S. Attorney for the District of New Jersey (referred to herein as the “Candidate” or “Official-3,” the latter after Official-3’s Senate confirmation). At the time of the meeting, the Candidate was an attorney in private practice, and the purpose of his meeting with MENENDEZ was to consider a potential candidacy for U.S. Attorney in New Jersey. In that meeting, MENENDEZ criticized the U.S. Attorney’s Office for the District of New Jersey’s prosecution of FRED DAIBES, the defendant, and said that he hoped that the Candidate would look into DAIBES’s case if the Candidate became the U.S. Attorney. MENENDEZ did not mention any other case in the meeting. After the meeting, the Candidate informed MENENDEZ that he might have to recuse himself from the DAIBES prosecution as a result of a matter he had handled in private practice involving DAIBES. MENENDEZ subsequently informed the Candidate that MENENDEZ would not put forward the Candidate’s name to the White House for a recommendation to be nominated by the President for the position of U.S. Attorney. MENENDEZ also told the Candidate that MENENDEZ would be recommending a different individual for the position.

48. Instead of the Candidate, ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, recommended a different individual for U.S. Attorney. FRED DAIBES, the defendant, believed that different individual would likely be sympathetic to him. In or about the spring of 2021, a series of news reports critical of the other individual were published.

49. During that time period, in or about the spring of 2021, an individual (the “Advisor”) associated with ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, spoke to the Candidate and discussed, among other things, the possibility of the Candidate recusing from the prosecution of FRED DAIBES, the defendant. Subsequently, the Advisor informed MENENDEZ that the Advisor believed that the Candidate would likely not have to recuse from the prosecution of DAIBES. On or about May 2, 2021, in connection with MENENDEZ’s potential recommendation of the Candidate, the Advisor texted MENENDEZ, “I think if you call [the Candidate], you’ll be comfortable with what he says.”

50. Following the events set forth in paragraph 49, ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, recommended to the President that the Candidate be nominated for the position of U.S. Attorney for the District of New Jersey.

51. On or about October 17, 2021, ROBERT MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendants, returned from a trip in which they traveled to Qatar as well as to Egypt, as described in paragraph 37.f, landing at John F. Kennedy International Airport. Upon their arrival, a driver for FRED DAIBES, the defendant (“DAIBES’s Driver”), picked up MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ from the airport and drove them to their home in New Jersey. The next day, MENENDEZ performed a web search for “how much is one kilo of gold worth.”

52. Following the recommendation by ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, of the Candidate as described in paragraph 50, above, the Candidate was nominated by the President, confirmed by the Senate, and sworn in as U.S. Attorney for the District of New Jersey in or about December 2021 (hereinafter, Official-3).

53. Shortly after the swearing in, on the basis of information that Official-3 provided to the U.S. Department of Justice to determine whether a recusal was warranted, Official-3 was informed that Official-3 was recused from the prosecution of FRED DAIBES, the defendant. Official-3 and the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey implemented that recusal. After Official-3 became the U.S. Attorney, the following events took place, among others:

a. On or about December 23, 2021, the trial of DAIBES, which had previously been scheduled for January 2022, was adjourned for reasons related to the COVID-19 pandemic. Later that day, DAIBES texted NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a "Nadine Arslanian," the defendant, and asked how ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, who had recently sustained a shoulder injury, was doing. NADINE MENENDEZ responded that MENENDEZ was doing better having heard that the trial date was adjourned, and that MENENDEZ was "FIXATED on it." DAIBES responded, "Good I don't want him to be upset over it. This is not his fault he was amazing in all he did he's an amazing friend and as loyal as they come. How is the shoulder is he sleeping. Let me know if I can get him a recliner it helped me sleep." DAIBES thereafter provided a recliner to MENENDEZ.

b. On or about January 21, 2022, MENENDEZ called Official-3 and asked the identity of Official-3's First Assistant U.S. Attorney ("Official-4"). As a result of Official-3's recusal, Official-4 had supervisory responsibility over the prosecution of DAIBES.

c. On or about January 22, 2022, MENENDEZ and DAIBES called DAIBES's lawyer to complain that the lawyer had not been aggressive enough in attempting to get DAIBES's case dismissed.

d. On or about January 24, 2022, DAIBES's Driver exchanged two brief calls with NADINE MENENDEZ. NADINE MENENDEZ then texted DAIBES, writing, "Thank you. Christmas in January." DAIBES's Driver's fingerprints were later found on an envelope containing thousands of dollars of cash recovered from the residence of MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ in New Jersey. This envelope also bore DAIBES's DNA and was marked with DAIBES's return address. In or about the early afternoon of January 24, 2022—i.e., approximately two hours after NADINE MENENDEZ had texted DAIBES thanking him and writing “Christmas in January”—MENENDEZ called Official-4, in a call lasting for approximately 15 seconds. This was MENENDEZ's first phone call to Official-4. On or about January 29, 2022—i.e., several days after NADINE MENENDEZ had texted DAIBES, thanking him and writing “Christmas in January”—MENENDEZ performed a Google search for “kilo of gold price.”

e. On or about January 31, 2022, MENENDEZ again called Official-4, in a call lasting for approximately one minute and 24 seconds. Within minutes of the end of his call with Official-4, MENENDEZ called DAIBES.

f. Between approximately in or about December 2021 and February 2022, MENENDEZ directed the Advisor to ask Official-3, who was at the time the U.S. Attorney for the District of New Jersey, why he had recused himself from the prosecution of DAIBES, when MENENDEZ had previously believed that he would not recuse himself. The Advisor declined to do so.

g. Later, in or about late March 2022, the Advisor informed MENENDEZ that he was planning to have lunch with Official-3. MENENDEZ told the Advisor, in sum and substance, that he was frustrated with the way the U.S. Attorney's Office was handling the prosecution of DAIBES, and further told the Advisor to tell Official-3 to give DAIBES “all due process,” notwithstanding that, as MENENDEZ knew, Official-3 was recused from the matter. The Advisor had the lunch with Official-3, but did not pass on the message from MENENDEZ.

h. On or about March 30, 2022, NADINE MENENDEZ met for lunch with DAIBES. Following the lunch, NADINE MENENDEZ texted DAIBES, “THANK YOU Fred

✂✂✂✂.” The next day, NADINE MENENDEZ met with a jeweler (the “Jeweler”), who was friends with DAIBES and WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendant, and texted with DAIBES about the fact that she was meeting the Jeweler. At that meeting, NADINE MENENDEZ provided the Jeweler two one-kilogram gold bars to be sold. At that time, the spot market price for gold was over $60,000 per kilogram. NADINE MENENDEZ falsely told the Jeweler, in sum and substance, that the gold came from her mother. A court-authorized search of NADINE MENENDEZ’s phone later found a photograph, taken the day of NADINE MENENDEZ’s meeting with the Jeweler, of two one-kilogram gold bars marked with serial numbers indicating they had previously been possessed by DAIBES. A portion of this photograph is below.

54. Official-3 and Official-4 did not pass on to the prosecution team the fact that ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, had contacted them as described in the above paragraphs, and they did not treat the case differently as a result of the above-described contacts. In or about April 2022, FRED DAIBES, the defendant, pled guilty pursuant to a plea agreement that provided for a probationary sentence.

MENENDEZ Accepts Cash and Gold Bars Knowing that DAIBES Expected Him in Exchange to Assist DAIBES by Performing Acts for the Benefit of the Government of Qatar

55. From in or about 2021 through in or about 2023, ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, accepted payment from FRED DAIBES, the defendant, knowing that DAIBES expected MENENDEZ in exchange to use his influence and power and breach his official duty to assist DAIBES, who was seeking a multimillion-dollar investment from an investment company with ties to the Government of Qatar (the “Qatari Investment Company”), by performing acts to benefit the Government of Qatar. Specifically, MENENDEZ accepted, among other things, at least certain of the same cash and gold bars described in paragraphs 46-54, above, from DAIBES, knowing that DAIBES also expected MENENDEZ in exchange to seek to induce the Qatari Investment Company to invest with DAIBES, including by taking action favorable to the Government of Qatar.

56. During the pendency of his criminal prosecution in the District of New Jersey, FRED DAIBES, the defendant, sought financing for a real estate project in New Jersey and with which he was involved. In or about June 2021, ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, introduced DAIBES to an investor who was a member of the Qatari royal family and the principal of the Qatari Investment Company (the “Qatari Investor”). The Qatari Investor proceeded to consider and negotiate a multimillion-dollar investment into the real estate project.

57. While the Qatari Investment Company was considering the potential investment into the real estate development owned by FRED DAIBES, the defendant, ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, made multiple public statements supporting the Government of Qatar. MENENDEZ provided DAIBES with these statements so that DAIBES could share them with the Qatari Investor and a Qatari government official associated with the Qatari Investment Company (“Qatari Official-1”). For example, on or about August 20, 2021, MENENDEZ used an encrypted messaging application to send DAIBES the text of a press release in which MENENDEZ praised the Government of Qatar, and several minutes later used the application to text DAIBES, “You might want to send to them. I am just about to release.” Shortly thereafter, the Qatari Investor messaged Qatari Official-1, “I received copy from F.”

58. The next month, in or about September 2021, ROBERT MENENDEZ and FRED DAIBES, the defendants, attended a private event in Manhattan hosted by the Qatari government. Several days later, on or about September 27, 2021, DAIBES sent MENENDEZ, via an encrypted messaging application, photographs of a computer monitor depicting luxury wristwatches with prices ranging from $9,990 to $23,990, and asked MENENDEZ, “How about one of these.” The photographs are depicted below:

Two days later, on or about September 29, 2021, DAIBES used the same encrypted messaging application to text MENENDEZ a link to a website tracking a Senate resolution supportive of Qatar, which reflected that one day earlier the resolution had been introduced and referred to the SFRC.

59. As described in paragraph 51, on or about October 17, 2021—i.e., several weeks after the messages from FRED DAIBES, the defendant, to ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, described in paragraph 58, above—following the return of MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendant, from a trip to Qatar and Egypt—DAIBES’s Driver picked up MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ at the airport, and the next day MENENDEZ performed a web search for “how much is one kilo of gold worth.”

60. In or about November 2021, the Qatari Investment Company was still considering the proposed investment in the real estate project of FRED DAIBES, the defendant. That month, on or about November 4, 2021—i.e., less than three weeks after ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, performed the web search described in paragraph 59—DAIBES used an encrypted messaging application to send MENENDEZ an update on the proposed Senate resolution supportive of Qatar.

61. On or about January 4, 2022, in advance of a planned trip by FRED DAIBES, the defendant, to meet with the Qatari Investor in London, ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, used an encrypted messaging application to text the Qatari Investor and DAIBES, “Greetings. I understand my friend is going to visit with you on the 15th of the month. I hope that this will result in the favorable and mutually beneficial agreement that you have been both engaged in discussing.”

62. On or about March 31, 2022—i.e., the day of the sale by NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendant, of gold bars described in paragraph 53.h—ROBERT MENENDEZ and FRED DAIBES, the defendants, met for dinner. That evening, NADINE MENENDEZ texted MENENDEZ, “Is it just you, Fred and the Qataris in the private room this entire time?” and MENENDEZ replied in the affirmative.

63. In or about early May 2022, Qatari Official-1, at the request of ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, provided a close relative (the “Relative”) of NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendant, with tickets to the 2022 Formula One Grand Prix race held in Miami, Florida.

64. In or about May 2022, following a meeting between ROBERT MENENDEZ and FRED DAIBES, the defendants, and the Qatari Investor and Qatari Official-1 in New Jersey, the Qatari Investment Company signed a letter of intent to enter into a joint venture with a company controlled by DAIBES. Thereafter, DAIBES provided MENENDEZ with at least one gold bar. Three days after the signing of the letter of intent for the Qatari Investment Company’s investment with DAIBES, on or about May 26, 2022, MENENDEZ, DAIBES, and NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendant, met for dinner in Edgewater, New Jersey, at approximately 7:30 PM. Later that evening, at approximately 10:30 PM, MENENDEZ performed a Google search for “one kilo gold price”.

65. As noted above, in or about June 2022, a court-authorized search of the residence of ROBERT MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendants, revealed, among other things, approximately two one-kilogram gold bars and nine one-ounce gold bars that had serial numbers indicating they had previously been possessed by FRED DAIBES, the defendant. The search also revealed that the residence contained, among other things, hundreds of thousands of dollars of cash, including approximately ten envelopes of cash, with tens of thousands of dollars, bearing the fingerprints and/or DNA of DAIBES. One of those envelopes also bore, in addition to the fingerprints of DAIBES, the fingerprints of MENENDEZ.

66. In or about 2023, the Qatari Investment Company entered into a joint venture with a company controlled by FRED DAIBES, the defendant, and invested tens of millions of dollars into the project. Thereafter, ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, continued to receive things of value from the Qatari Investment Company. In particular, in or about May 2023, the Qatari Investor caused four tickets for the 2023 Formula One Grand Prix race held in Miami to be provided to the Relative.

67. At all times relevant to this Indictment, ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, was required as a U.S. Senator to file annual financial disclosure forms listing, among other things, income received by him or his spouse in each calendar year. At all times relevant to this Indictment, MENENDEZ did not disclose, among other things, the receipt of any payments towards the Mercedes-Benz Convertible for the benefit of him or of NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendant, the receipt of any cash or gold bars by him or by NADINE MENENDEZ, or the Miami Grand Prix tickets for the Relative, in any relevant calendar year.

MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ Seek to Cover Up the Bribery Scheme

68. In or about June 2022, federal agents executed court-authorized search warrants on the residence of ROBERT MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendants, among other places, and served subpoenas issued by a federal grand jury sitting in the Southern District of New York on MENENDEZ, NADINE MENENDEZ, Jose Uribe, and IS EG Halal (the “Subpoenas”). The Subpoenas sought documents pertaining to, among other things, payments by Uribe for the Mercedes-Benz Convertible, and payments WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana, the defendant, caused IS EG Halal to make to NADINE MENENDEZ’s mortgage company. After service of the Subpoenas, Uribe ceased making payments on the Mercedes-Benz Convertible.

69. Following service of the Subpoenas, NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendant, met with Jose Uribe. At that meeting, in substance and in part, NADINE MENENDEZ asked Uribe what he would say if law enforcement asked him about the payments he had made for the Mercedes-Benz Convertible, Uribe responded that he would say those payments had been a loan, and NADINE MENENDEZ said that sounded good.

70. In or about December 2022, ROBERT MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendants, sought to return the bribe money that WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendant, had caused IS EG Halal to pay to the mortgage company in July 2019 to avoid foreclosure on NADINE MENENDEZ’s home, as described in paragraph 32 above. When MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ did so, they falsely characterized the return of the bribe money as repayment for a loan. In particular, in or about December 2022, MENENDEZ wrote NADINE MENENDEZ a check for $23,569, bearing the handwritten memo line “To Liquidate loan”, which NADINE MENENDEZ deposited. Also in or about December 2022, NADINE MENENDEZ wrote a check for $23,568.54 to HANA’s counsel, in trust for HANA, with the handwritten memo line “Full payment of Wael Hana loan,” along with a handwritten letter that stated, in part, that the check was “in full payment of a personal loan he [i.e., HANA] gave me [i.e., NADINE MENENDEZ].” However, in truth and in fact, and as MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ well knew, the payment of $23,568.54 that HANA caused to be made to NADINE MENENDEZ’s mortgage company, as described in paragraph 32, was not a loan, but a bribe payment.

71. In or about at least December 2022, ROBERT MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendants, sought to return to Jose Uribe some, but not all, of the bribe money Uribe had paid to obtain the Mercedes-Benz Convertible, as described above in paragraphs 43.d, 43.f, and 44.h. When MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ did so, they falsely characterized the return of the bribe money as repayment for a loan. In particular, MENENDEZ wrote NADINE MENENDEZ a check for $23,000 with the memo line

“for car payment,” which NADINE MENENDEZ deposited. Shortly thereafter, NADINE MENENDEZ wrote Uribe a check for $21,000 with the memo line “personal loan.” However, in truth and in fact, and as MENENDEZ and NADINE MENENDEZ well knew, the funds Uribe provided to NADINE MENENDEZ (including the cash Uribe provided to her in the parking lot) were not a loan, but bribe payments.

72. ROBERT MENENDEZ, the defendant, caused his then-counsel to meet with the United States Attorney’s Office for the Southern District of New York in Manhattan in or about June 2023 and again in or about September 2023, and—in reliance on statements made to them by MENENDEZ—to state at both meetings, in substance and in part, that MENENDEZ had been unaware until 2022 of the payment of $23,568.54 that WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendant, had caused to be made to the company holding the mortgage on the house of NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendant, or the money that Jose Uribe had paid towards the Mercedes-Benz Convertible. MENENDEZ also caused his then-counsel to state at the September 2023 meeting, in substance and in part, that in 2022, MENENDEZ had learned that these payments were loans. In truth and in fact, and as MENENDEZ well knew, MENENDEZ had learned of both the mortgage company payment and the car payments prior to 2022, and they were not loans, but bribe payments.

73. NADINE MENENDEZ, a/k/a “Nadine Arslanian,” the defendant, caused her counsel to meet with the United States Attorney’s Office for the Southern District of New York in Manhattan in or about August 2023, and—in reliance on statements made by NADINE MENENDEZ—to state, in substance and in part, that the $23,568.54 that WAEL HANA, a/k/a “Will Hana,” the defendant, had caused to be made to the company holding the mortgage on NADINE MENENDEZ’s house was a loan and that the payments that Jose Uribe had made on the Mercedes-Benz Convertible were a loan. In truth and in fact, and as NADINE MENENDEZ well knew, both the mortgage company payment and the car payments were not loans, but bribe payments.
